OSV PARTNERS WITH O'MEARA FERGUSON FOR ENHANCED STEWARDSHIP SERVICES

HUNTINGTON, IN – The Offering Envelope Division of Our Sunday Visitor has entered into an agreement with O'Meara, Ferguson, Whelan, and Conway (O'Meara Ferguson) to sell and implement selected stewardship products and services to Catholic dioceses and religious institutes.

Our Sunday Visitor, Inc., a leader in Catholic stewardship initiatives, currently offers numerous resources and strategies for parishes and dioceses seeking to adopt or strengthen stewardship practices. O'Meara Ferguson has a reputation for delivering innovative financial strategies, capital financing alternatives, investment management advice, stewardship consulting and fundraising counsel.

Dioceses are seeking to maintain, and often increase, ministry participation, offertory and capital programs. Based on the terms of the agreement, the two companies will promote and sell products and services to serve short-term needs while setting the base for sustaining vibrant and active Catholic communities.

“Both companies have outstanding reputations providing stewardship solutions to Catholic dioceses,” says Terry Poplava, director of marketing and sales, Our Sunday Visitor, Offering Envelope Division. “By working together to cross promote stewardship products and services, we can assist Catholic dioceses in achieving their goals.”

Patrick O'Meara, President and Founder of O'Meara Ferguson, describes the collaboration with Our Sunday Visitor's Offering Envelope Division as “a creative response to the growing need for stewardship-based programs to increase revenue in parishes and dioceses that are struggling to carry out the Church's mission in uncertain economic times.”
